

Lesson Blueprints: Writing Rubrics

Rubric for: Narrative Rubric

Grade Level: Elementary School

Student _____

Project Title _____

Feature	4	3	2	1	Score
Organization	The writing has detailed, sequenced events and closure.	The writing has sequenced events, some details, and closure.	The writing has events and an ending.	Events are not sequenced. The story ends abruptly.
Elements of Story	Characters, locations, conflict, plotline, and theme are interesting and well developed.	Characters, locations, conflict, plotline, and theme are included and fairly well developed.	Characters, locations, conflict, plotline, and theme are included.	Writing includes at least one element of stories.
Capitalization, punctuation, spelling	The writing has no mistakes in spelling. The writer uses capital letters and punctuation correctly.	The writing has 1-3 mistakes in spelling. The writer makes 1-3 mistakes with capital letters and punctuation.	The writing has 4-5 mistakes in spelling, capital letters, and punctuation.	The writing has more than five mistakes in spelling, capital letters, and punctuation.
Presentation	The work is neatly written with no erasures or stray marks. The writing is easy to read.	The work is mostly neatly written with few erasures and stray marks. The writing is mostly easy to read.	The work has several erasures and stray marks. Some parts are difficult to read.	There are many erasures and marks. Writing is difficult to read.
					Total